

CONVICTED MURDERER MAKES HIS ESCAPE

Guard From Baker's Camp Chased
Him to North Gainesville.

ASKED FENNEL FOR HELP

Several Officers and Volunteers Accompanied the Officer to North Gainesville and Made a Thorough Search. But Nothing Could be Accomplished.

Thomas Ganey of Alachua, who was convicted in the circuit court last year upon a charge of murder of a woman, and who was sentenced to the penitentiary for life, has made his escape, and is now in the vicinity of Gainesville, if he has not used other means than "natural proclivities" to get away.

It will be remembered that Ganey was arraigned for murder at the term of the circuit court before the last, and was wise enough to plead guilty, asking the mercy of the court. He was given the sentence, and sent to the camp of P. H. Baker of Campville. He has been a faithful worker at this camp, and the guards felt an inclination to trust him, but he betrayed the confidence of those who had the custody, with the result that he deceived them and got away.

Soon after the escape of this prisoner the guards at Baker's camp became aware of the fact, and sent a guard on horseback, accompanied by bloodhounds, to trace the man. They succeeded in a short time in scenting the track, and followed it to North Gainesville, where they lost the trail.

The guard who was detailed for the work went to Henry Ramsey's store in North Gainesville and telephoned to Sheriff Fennell the particulars. The sheriff went immediately to the scene, accompanied by several deputies, but the negro had disappeared, and up to this writing nothing has been heard of the escaped convict.

There seems to be a "looseness" about the manner of caring for convicts, and the sooner these conditions are relieved the better off will be the State and those who employ convict labor. It encourages crime, because under the present rules of diligence the average criminal feels that "it is as easy to get convicted as it is easy to get away," and governs himself accordingly.

Herbine

Will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia; regulate the bowels and cure liver and kidney complaints. It is the best blood enricher and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise. R. N. Andrews, editor and manager, Cocoa and Rockledge News, Cocoa, Fla., writes: "I have used your Herbine in my family, and find it a most excellent medicine. Its effects upon myself have been a marked benefit. Sold by W. M. Johnson, Gainesville, Fla., and J. C. Bishop, Alachua, Fla."

Rejected the New for the Old.

Thomson, Ga., May 19.—Miss Mary Story, of Thomson, and Mr. L. L. Harker, of Marietta, Ga., were married here and created quite a ripple of excitement from the fact that the engagement of Miss Story to a prominent young man of a neighboring town had been announced in the state papers, the wedding to be solemnized in June. All arrangements had been made for this wedding, which was to be the society event of the season, but it appears that an old sweetheart, appeared upon the scene, with the result above mentioned.
